PLANNING DIVISION

From: Richard Wilcox

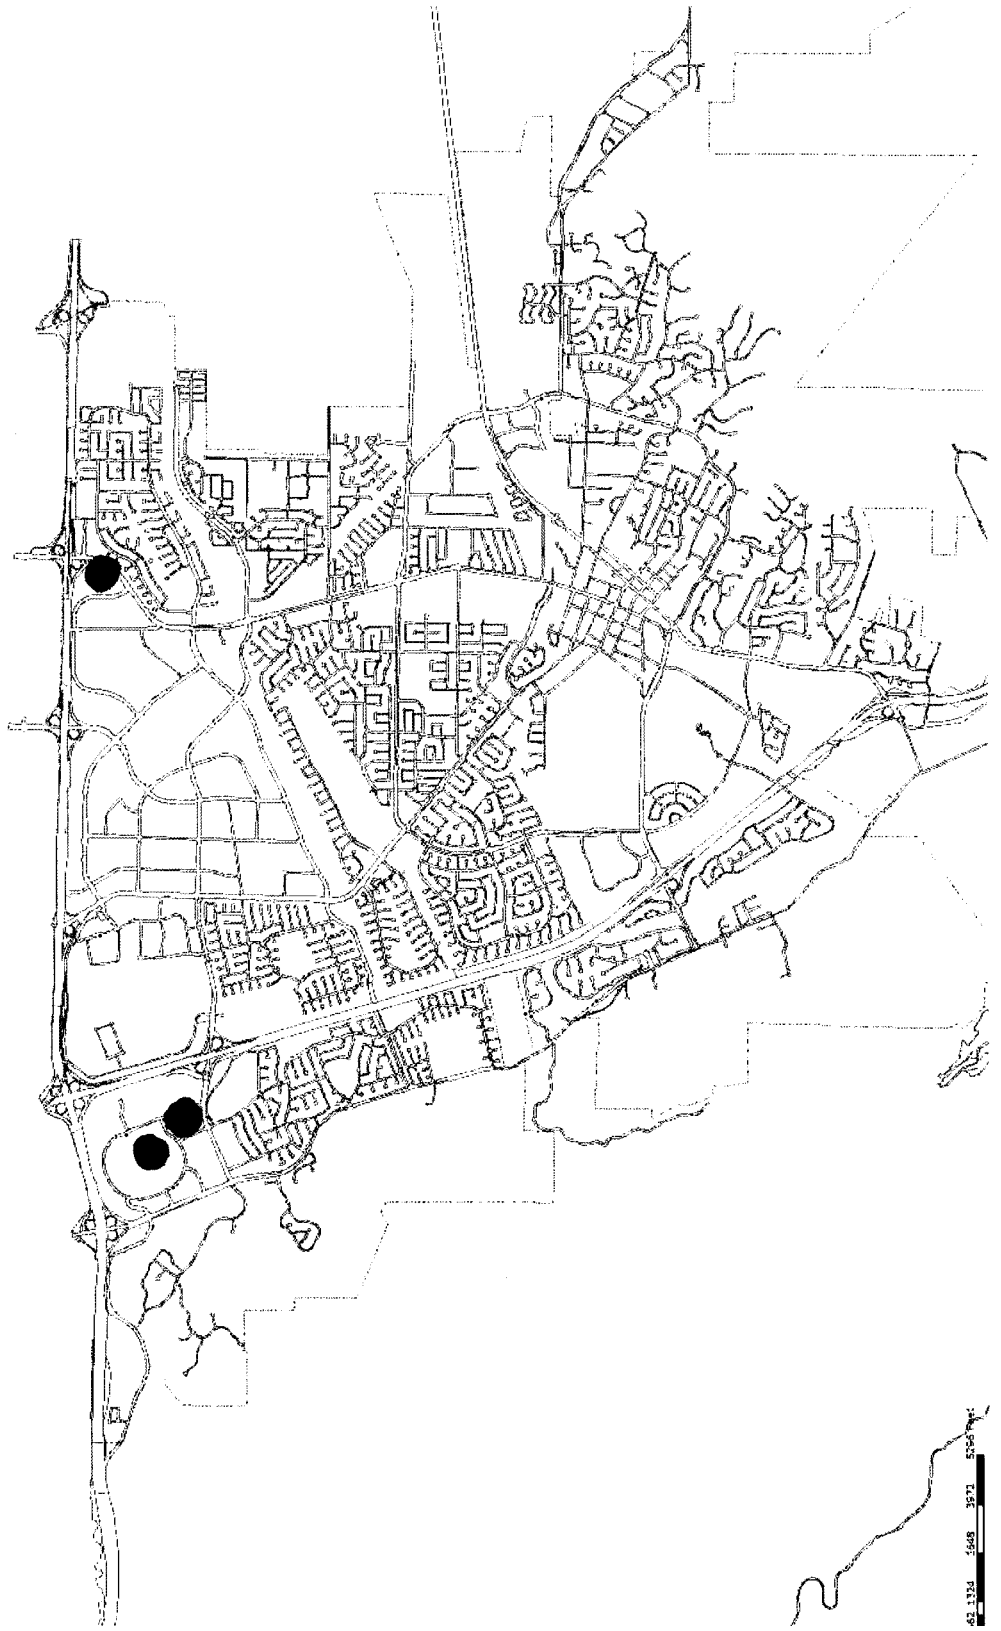

I am writing this letter to appeal the decision that the new Cash for Gold in the I.C. Penney Home furnishings shopping center off Springdale Avenue in Pleasanton should be classified as a jewelry store. The current criteria in Pleasanton is that anyone buying gold is considered a jewelry store and that the planning department approves as such. I think this is a wrong designation of this business (Cash for Gold) and it should stand alone in the approval process. A jewelry store will sell and design jewelry and deal with precious stones and the purchase of gold is ancillary to the jeweler's business. Cash for Gold is for the purchase of precious metals and limited in most cases to only that. There are several cities in California that require gold buyers to get a special use permit along with the second hand dealer's license and business license. The following cities are an example: Walnut Creek, Ontario, Stockton. This permit allows Pleasanton to have more control over this type of business and to limit growth if desired and increase revenues for the city.
