

STOP WASTE

Timothy Burroughs
Executive Director

Rachel Balsley
Senior Program Manager

Committee on Energy and the Environment –
City of Pleasanton

July 27, 2022

Who we are

- StopWaste is a public agency committed to advancing environmental sustainability and building healthy, climate resilient communities in Alameda County.
- We help residents, businesses, schools, and local governments reduce waste, use energy and water efficiently, and increase building electrification.

MARIN

CONTRA COSTA

- Albany
- Berkeley
- Piedmont
- Emeryville
- Oakland
- Alameda

SAN FRANCISCO

• San Leandro

• Dublin

• Castro Valley SD

• Livermore

• Oro Loma SD

• Pleasanton

• Hayward

• Union City

• The County of Alameda

SAN MATEO

• Fremont

• Newark

SAN JOAQUIN

STANISLAW

SANTA CLARA

Our Vision:

An Alameda County in which people thrive, are resilient, and are empowered to utilize materials and energy in ways that are good for the health of our communities, our local economy, and the planet.

Our Services

- Grant funding
- Technical assistance
- Community engagement & education
- Network building/convening
- Public outreach campaigns
- Energy incentive programs
- Ordinance enforcement
- Market development

SB 1383 Implementation & Food Recovery

- Supporting member agencies with local ordinance
- Compliance & monitoring assistance
- Connecting edible food generators with food recovery organizations
- Compost procurement support
- Outreach & education

Compost Hubs & Carbon Farming

- Compost hub pilots – Pleasanton under development
- Sustainable gardening resources
- Promoting carbon farming practices
- Outreach & education

Food Waste Reduction

Stop Food Waste campaign to prevent food waste at home, at school, at work

Grant funding to help food recovery organizations rescue edible food

Connecting orgs through Alameda County Food Recovery Network

Schools

- Empower youth to take action around the “4Rs”
- Transfer station tours & curriculum
- Assist school districts with SB 1383 compliance
- Support with Climate Action Plans

Reusable Foodware & Plastic Waste Prevention

- Grant funding to support innovation & build infrastructure
- Technical assistance & outreach to food service operators
- Model ordinance
- Policy support

RE:Source Tool

- Online guide for reuse, repair, recycling, and safe disposal across Alameda County
- Detailed curbside service information for each city
- Safe disposal options for household hazardous waste

Energy & Health

- Energy efficiency & electrification incentive programs
- Healthy homes initiative
- EV charging infrastructure in multifamily properties

STOP WASTE

Timothy Burroughs
tburroughs@stopwaste.org

Rachel Balsley
rbalsley@stopwaste.org